On 19th and 20th July 2014, several of our schools came together to participate in the bi-annual Private & International School Fair that was held in the Midvalley Exhibition Hall. Teachers and staff from Garden International School (GIS), Nexus International School, Putrajaya (NISP), Australian International School Malaysia (AISM) and Taylor’s International School brought life to our expansive booth with their respective unique school colours and identity. Over the two days, the fair which had over 15,000 visitors, was a perfect avenue for our schools’ counselors to meet the families and parents who came, to share on how our schools are able to meet the educational needs of their children, by offering them a quality holistic educational experience in our schools.
New Principal of AISM - Dr. Deborah Priest

Dr. Deborah Priest has been appointed as the new Principal of Australian International School Malaysia (AISM) and will be joining us in November 2014.

Dr. Priest’s last appointment was Head of Moreton Bay College, a school of over 1,300 students in Queensland, Australia. During her time at Moreton Bay College, Dr. Priest was involved in developing the College’s Master Plan and oversaw significant building projects. Dr. Priest has also worked at Bond University, where she was responsible for the design and accreditation of the Master of Education and of Education programs.

Dr. Priest is married with two adult daughters, and will be traveling to Kuala Lumpur with her husband. Upon joining the school, she aims to ensure a smooth transition and the continuity of teaching and learning improvement programs.

GIS - New Heads of Primary and Secondary School

Dr. Nicola Mason has been appointed the new Head of Secondary School. Dr. Mason joined GIS in 2009 as the Head of Science. Dr. Mason holds a PhD in Pathology (Medicine) from Imperial College University of London. She was appointed as Deputy Head - Curriculum in 2011.

Colter Watt has been appointed as the new Head of Primary School in Garden International School. Originally from the United States, Colter has taught in London and led primary schools in Shanghai, he is currently the Head of Primary at the British School Warsaw in Poland.

Both Dr. Mason and Mr. Watt will continue to strive towards building academic excellence and maintaining Garden International School as the leading British school in Asia, developing new opportunities for every student.

Taylor’s International School, Puchong (TISPC) is now open for registration!
